

Thubhairt lad . . .

Gairm has arrived. With its challenging rooster on the cover, and even many of its advertisements in Gaelic, the new Gaelic quarterly has made its bow.

It is a creditable production at half a crown (annual subscription ten shillings) and it deserves to survive. Scotland has all too few literary publications, in any case, for a country of such literary pretensions.—Edinburgh Evening Dispatch.

I want to congratulate you warmly on Gairm, which I consider the best magazine which has appeared for some time in Scotland. I enclose a further donation of £5 to show my appreciation of the splendid work you have put in. All my best wishes for your continued success
SIR COMPTON MACKENZIE.

Tha mi cinnteach gun do chòrd ur ràitheachan ùr ris na Gàidheil Albanacha, 's gun do chuir iadsin an céill dhuibh gu tràth. Maiseadh, chuala sinne fhéin gairm bhon Eun Thuathanach agus is ann toilichte a bha sinn ris. A nis seo gille á taoibh an iar na h-Eireann a tha 'cur failte chridheil air 'ur saothar. Buaidh is piseach leibh. Tha nidh ann ur leabhràn a chòrdas ris gach seorsa duine, sean is óg, Sé mo ghuidhe gum faigh é an meas as airidhe air, agus nach fada gur in eudan a' mhios a thig é mach is chan uair sa ràithe. Rath bho Dhia oirbh.—SEAMUS S. MACDONNCHA, Drom Raithne, Ath Luain, Iarmhìdhe, Eire.

Is toigh leam an leabhran airson a' mheudachd a tha ann 's gun amais mi air a leughadh 's mi 'nam sheasamh air leth-chois no air casan neach eile—anns an trèan gach maduinn agus feasgar eadar dachaidh agus obair. Is toigh leam e airson na leasan a tha 'gam chuideachadh 's mi a' feuchainn ri eòlas na Gàidhlig a thoirt do'n mhac agam. Is toigh leam e airson e a bhith foillseachadh gum bheil seann chànan ar n-athraichean glé chomasach air gnothaichean an la an diugh a chur an céill agus gum bheil e a' foillseachadh nach eil aobhar sam bith air a' chànan a bhith 'ga milleadh 's 'ga marbhadh le facal Gàidhlig agus Beurla mu seach mar a chluinnear cho tric.—DOMHNALL LOTHIAN, New Malden, Surrey.

Nochd Gairm, suas ri ciad taobh-duilleig dheth, air an là—dealbh brèagh air aghaidh de choileach spracail nach fhacas a leithid riamh air cabhsair.

B' e là sònraichte a bha so an litreachas na Gàidhlig. Tha rud-eigin ann a fhreagras càil a h-uile seòrsa leughadair. Mar a gheall iad, thug na fir-deasachaidh dhuinn earannan mu shluagh agus obraichean na Gàidhealtachd, sgialachdan, bàrdachd, leasan na Gàidhlig, dealbhan dhaoine is àiteachan is dealbhan éibhinn, is mar sin. Cuid de na sgrìobhadairean, is aithne dhuinn mar tha—cuid eile, 'gam faicinn air son na ciad uaire: bha e 'san amharc gum bitheadh iad so gu h-àraidh air am misneachadh